The original of these pages was graciously lent to James A Yoakum, Jr., Billie Gene Hansen Pringle and Norma J. Hansen Janiewski so that we could make copies. I cannot remember the exact date, but it was one summer day in the 1970's. We were very touched by his generosity and his notes have been very valuable, containing very much information we would not have discovered otherwise. He probably continued to collect information afterward, but we did not ask for updated information.

GENEALOGY

DODGE FAMILY

350 years in America

By George Dwight Dodge 10 of Hamilton MO

This geneaology was compiled partly from information and data furnished to me by my half brother, Silas Dwight Dodge, my first cousin, Mrs. Mary Clarkson Kautz, and excerpts from the book "Geneaology of the Dodge Family of Essex County, Massachusetts", written by Joseph Thompson Dodge, Ph.D.

R. R. Tunnel builder

To my best knowledge and belief this record of the Dodges is accurate, although very incomplete.

I would appreciate very much any more information that could be used, or any changes that should be made in this record.

DODGE GENEAOLOGY

This data I have gathered from the book; Geneaology of the Dodge Family of Essex County, Mass., 1629_- 1894--1898. This is in two volumes. It was written by Joseph Thompson Dodge,PH. D.

The Dodges were not vassals, or servitors, or peasants, or retainers.

The Dodge Family has the right to bear arms through an inherited right.

The Coat of Arms was granted to the apparent founder of the line; one Pierre Doidge, or, in present day spelling,Peter Dodge, of Stepworth, England. This was granted by Edward I , King of England, on April 8, 1273.

The following is taken from Robert Dodge's speech, given at the first reunion of the Dodge family in Salem, Mass, at Mechanics Hall, June 10,1879, just 250 years after William Dodge immigrated from England.

"The original patent is Norman French which I give a literal translation from the parchment copy in my possession, with the vivid emblazonment of arms; certified as extracted from the records of the Colledge of Arms, London, England, by Thos. W. King, York. Herald, March 30, 1850.

DODGE GENEAOLOGY.

First Patent:

To all men loving Nobleness, Virtue, and Chivalry: and to all Ladies, and maidens of honor, of honest deportment and gentilesse, and to each of them: I, James Hedingley, called Guyen , King of Arms: Greeting in Peace and Good Speed. Above all, that which appertains to the honorable office of a Herald is , first; to record the good fame and renoun of all honest and virtous persons. So, likewiseit is suitable and fit to Give and Set in orderto such persons, Ensigns and Arms of Honor; so, that their noble and valiant deeds of Arms, may be preserved in perpetual remembrance, and, therefore having regard to the loyal and valiant service of Peter Dodge , a native of the Town of Stepworth, in the County of Chester, Gentlemen: which he has done and performed to my dear and Soverign Lord, by the Grace of God, King of England, Lord of Ireland, and Duke of Guyen, as well in several battles against his great enemy and rebel , Baliol, King of Scotland and Vassal of England: as likewise at the seige of Berwick and Dunbar: there whence in his duty and valiant courage, he was conspicous for the advancement of his renowmn and the good content of my said Soverign Lord, who, in recompense of his said service, and by his Special Grace , gave to him, and to his heirs forever, the Lordship of Podenhughe; with the Barony of Coldingham in the kingdom of Scotland.

I have, therefore, thought it convenient, in the performance of my office, to grant him Arms accordingly, and specially for two reasons: the one for having valiantly served towards the King's peace and the public good: the other, that his heirs and successors by the remembrance of his honour and valour, may be encouraged to follow him, always in like virtue and noble conduct. And for which cause Know Ye: That I,the aforesaid Guyen, have Given and Granted to the said Peter Dodge, that from hence forth, he may carry his Shield: ''Barry of Six: Or and Sable: on a Pale Gules, aWomans Breast Gouttant'', which Arms appear here in view depicted.

I, Guyen, King of Arms, have Given and Confirmed to the said Peter Dodge, and to his heirs forever, to have, enjoy, and use the same: and in them to be adorned for the advancement of their honor, as well in all Triumps, Jousts, Tournaments, and other deeds of Arms, as adorn Martial matches and enterprises, that may be requisite in peace or war, in all places and at all times, according to their pleasure, without the impeachment of any person or persons.

In testimony of which I have here subjoined my seal.

DODGE GENEAOLOGY.

Given the 8th. day of April, the thirty-fourth year of the reign of our Soverign Lord, Edward, son of King Henry, after the conquest, the first of that name.

The other patent of Arms of 1547 , by Henry VIII is on record at the College of Arms , London, England, and describes the Crest . It is to John Dodge , of Rotham, Kent.

Described in:
Report of the Memoriable First Reunion of the Dodge Family in America. By Robert Dodge of New York, City.

The first or , rather, last of the Dodges in England that are our direct ancestors were John Dodge and his wife, Margery, of Somersetshire.

Mr. William Dodge arrived from England the 29th. of June,1629. He came over in the 'Fleet' which comprised five vessels. They were:

The Talbot
The Lyons Whelpe
The Four Sisters
The Mayflower
The George

DODGE GENEAOLOGY

The following is copied from Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine v.62, April, 1928, loaned to me by Miss Margaret Harrington.

A quotation from Webster is given and then the Bible reference Neh. 7,5. Then follows the invitation sent to all Dodges as follows:

Thursday, the 10th. day of July, 1879, being the 250th. Anniversary of the landing of William Dodge, all that bear our name in the United States, either in person or by their representatives, shall gather anew, at Mechanic Hall, Essex Street, in Ancient Salem, Essex County, Massachusetts, at ten o'clock A.M., for a Social Reunion, to provide for a proper Memorial, and listen to the Addresses of several members of our family.

Representatives came from eighteen states, and all of the British Provinces, numbering over 1000; from Texas to Novia Scotia, from California to eastern Maine.

Mr. William E. Dodge was elected President from New York City-also twelve vice presidents, among them Robert Perley Dodge , Georgetown, D.C.

DODGE GENEAOLOGY

Our ancient family name comes from the Saxon root of their Ancient Folk Speech, which, like the Hebrew, has a meaning and history frequently of greater significance than those of Latin Europe. Spelman, in his glossary of Anglo- Saxon, the highest authority on the subject, derives it from "Dugge": a womans breast. This is verified and confirmed by the very ancient, original patent of the Family Arms;and to the same effect is Gwillims Display of Heraldy.

Another Patent Grant of Arms, of a much ~~xxxxxx~~late date, viz:1547: or 38th. Hen. VIII , is also on record in the College of Arms, London, and likewise certified.

It is shorter, to John Dodge of Rotham, Kent: and inasmuch as it confirms the First Patent, as the then very ancient: and describes the Crest also: I may be allowed here to give it in modernized English.

SECOND PATENT.

"To all Nobles, and Gentles, Reading Hearing or Seeing these Letters present: Thomas Hawley, as Clarencieux principal Herald and King of Arms, of the South, East and West parts of the Realm of England from the River Trent Southwards, sendeth due and humble Commendation and Greeting; Equity willeth, and Reason ordereth, that men virtous, and of noble courage be by their merits and good renown rewarded; not only their persons in this mortal life, so brief and transitory, but alsp after them, those that shall be of their body descended: to the end that by their ensample, others may the more enforce themselves, to get the renown of Ancient Nobles in their Lines and posterities.

And forasmuch as John Dodge of Rotham, in the County of Kent, Gentlemen , is descended from a House bearing Arms, as appeareth by an ancient Patent of Arms ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ ~~xxxx~~granted and given by Jacques (James) Hedingley as Guyen King of Arms the VIIIth day of April in the XXXVIII (sic) Year of the Reign of King Edward the First, To Peter Dodge, ~~xx~~ born in Stopworth , in the County of Chester, Gentleman: then being as more plainly appeareth by the said Patent, of the which the said John is descended. Therefore the said , Clarencieux King of Arms by the authority and power annexed, attributed, given and granted by the King, our Sovereign

Lord, by the express words, under his most noble Great Seal, to me, and to my office of Clarencieux King of Arms; Do Ratify, Set forth, Confirm and Grant to the said John Dodge, Gentleman, for him, and his posterity the said Arms, with a Crest thereunto in manner as hereafter followeth, that is to say; Gold and Sable, Barry of Six pieces : a ~~Demi-Lyon maryn~~ on a Pale Gules, a Womans pappe, gouttant, Situ . Upon his Helmet, on a Torse, gold and azure; a Demi-Lyon maryn; Sable langued and armed gules: about his neck a Gemmel Gold, manteld Gules, Dobled, Situ: as more plainly depicted in the margin. To have and to hold the said Crest and Arms to the said John Dodge, Gentleman, for him and posterity, and they it to use and enjoy evermore.

In witness whereof, I, the said Clarencieux King of Arms have signed this present Confirmation with my hand and set the Seal of my office of Clarencieux King of Arms. Given and Granted at London the XVIth day of December, in the XXXVIII year pf the reign of our Sovereign Lord Henry the Eight, by the grace of God, King of England, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith and of the Church of England and Ireland, on Earth, the Supreme Head.

The First Patent (1306) to "Pierre", or Peter Dodge, is among the most ancient records of the Heralds College.

Mr. was a prefix that before 1650 meant social position. Only seven of the 400 immigrants to Salem had the prefix Mr. to their names.

Our ancestor's brother was called Mr. William Dodge. another brother who stayed in England name was Michael.

Our ancestor to first come to this country was Richard Dodge. He came over in 1638 or 1639. There is cause to believe, however, that he was slightly older than his brother, William.

DODGE GENEAOLOGY

WILLIAM DODGE.

The brother of Richard Dodge. William came to Salem, Mass. in 1629. He was probably younger than Richard. He was born about 1604, and died at the age of about 76. He is described as being rather tall, dark hair, fine, straight nose, and of a gentlemany bearing.

RICHARD DODGE.

Born about 1602; died June 15, 1671.

Richard was baptized , according to the record on the parish register of East Coken, Somersetshire, Eng., in 1628, the date of the birth being missing. On Sept. 7, 1630, a daughter of Richard and Edith was baptized. On Feb. 2, 1631, the daughter was buried.

It is positive that Richard came to Amerida in 1638, and it is probable that he came without Royal permission as the king of England did not favor emmigration at this particular time.

Richard was a farmer. He and his wife, Edith, were members of Wendham church. He was a liberal contributor.

It is known that he favored education. In a list of contributors to Harvard college, his gift was the largest of twenty-one subscribers; the next largest amount being one-fourth the amount of his gift.

He had five sons and two daughters. He left an estate of 1764 pounds.

DODGE GENEAOLOGY.

RICHARD[2] DODGE.

Richard was a farmer. He owned land, operated a large cider press, and had one slave. He lived in the south part of Wendham. He was born in Beverly in 1643, and died Apr. 13, 1705, at Wendham. He was married Feb, 23, 1667, to Mary Eaton who was born in 1641, and who died Nov.28, 1716. They are buried in North Beverly. Their gravestones are still there.

RICHARD[3] DODGE.

Little seems to be recorded of this Richard. He was known to be a prosperous farmer. He was born July 12, 1670, and died July 7, 1739. He died in Ipswich. He was married Nov.16, 1694, to Martha, daughter of Deacon Thos. Low, of Chebacco, in Ipswich.

RICHARD[4] DODGE.

Richard sold most of the land willed to him by his father, Richard[3]. He purchased other lands, however, some of which was located in Uxbridge, Sutton, and Worchester. He willed this land to his children. His children were probably born in Ipswich. He was born in 1711 or 1712. He died in Hamlet Parish before April 11, 1777. He married Sarah Tuttle about Aug. 16, 1734.

RICHARD[5] DODGE.

Richard bought most of the land willed to them by their father, Richard[4]. He afterwards went to live with one of hisc sons on a farm near Croydon, New Hampshire. He was born about 1750 or 1752. He died Nov. 1833. He was married July 19, 1770 TO Lois Towne of Sutton who died the 7th. or 9th. of Sept.,1812. They are buried at Croydon, N. H. T heir gravesstones are still there.

also: "The Christian church of Kingston organized Dec. 24, 1865 with the following members: (Dwight Dodge) (Lemuel Dunn) J.D. Cop J.P. McKinnie H. B. Nelson, Walker Miller, Susannah P. Thompson, Rowanna McKinnie, (Emma A. Dunn) (Lydia Dodge) and Harriet C, Northup."

*(note by Nora Z).
Susan Monroe was the first wife, who died in NY in 1830, long before family came to Missouri.
Family feuds must have been bitter. Second wife Lydia buried beside him but reputedly no gravestone because step sons objected — even though their stepmother had 6 children by her husband, the Reverend Dodge!

DODGE GENEAOLOGY.

The following was copied from a newspaper printed in August, 1869, in Kingston, Mo.:

___ Died ___

Dodge: At his residence in Kingston, Caldwell Co. Mo. on the 23rd. day of August, 1869-- Rev. Dwight Dodge, in the 72nd. year of his age.

A father in Israel has been called away.

His earthly career has ended. The trials, conflicts, sufferings of this life are over and he has entered upon that higher and better state of existence to which he had long looked forward with joyful anticipations.

The deceased was a native of New Hampshire, but he spent the prime of his early manhood in Courtland Co. New York. He emmigrated to Missouri in the year 1846. He has left a numerous offspring, children and grand children, the principal part of which are living in the county of his decease.

Early in life he entered upon the service of God and became a member of the Christian church, and from that time, untilhis death, extending over a period of more than half a century he was an humble and consistent follower of the Lord Jesus Christ; and for nearly forty years, as a preacher of the Gospel, he pointed sinners to the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sins of the world. His faith was a shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

Long will be the memory of father Dodge be cherished, not alone by the numerous relatives, but by a wide circle of friends in the state of his adoption, as well as by those who knew him in earlier life in the state from which he emmigrated. He leaves a void in the family circle, in the church,and, in the community. But he has left the example of a Christian life; and as we think of his life and of his death, it is our greatest consolation that he is one of those of which it may be truly said: "blessed are the dead that die in the Lord"

DODGE GENEAOLOGY.

His Christian friends will meet him again on the other side of the Jordan. He will be one of that great multitude that no man can number; that shall stand before The Throne clothed in white robes and with psalms in their hands, of whom it shall be said:

"These are they that have Come up through great tribulation and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb"

"THere is a land where the and the lost shall gain
Be returned to our bosoms and torn from us never,
Where death has no power, and true
bliss will reign
In the hearts of the sanctified spirits forever."

David Hull owned 2 farms in Homer N. Y. in the tract awarded for the services in the Rev. war. These he probably bought of Thomas Dodge Dood. Mr. Hull was injured while assisting in the raising of Chauncey Morgan's barn.

The following is an exact copy of the record given to my half brother by our Aunt Susannah McCollum :

Hamilton, Mo. was laid out by a Mr. Hamilton and Mr. A. G. Davis and one other man.

Mr. Silas D. Dodge cut the walnut tree on his place in the summer of 1856. He and Mr. David Hull rived out the shingles and Mr. Dodge hauled the shingles with an ox team for a hotel built by a Mr. William Pardon and a Mr. Cheek and one other man.

A MR. DAVID HULL WAS SILAS'S IN-LAW. FATHER. This David was likely written in clear

This was the first house built in * Hamilton. The carpenters boarded at Mr. Dodge's and walked it every morning and evening. They stepped it and said that it was three miles and seven steps from Mr. Dodge's place to the building site.

* THIS HOUSE MAY HAVE BEEN THE FIRST HOUSE; BUT IT IS MORE LIKELY TO HAVE BEEN ONLY THE FIRST SHINGLED HOUSE, AS IT WAS INDEED.

a Mr. Isaac Hull was one of two witnesses to Richard Dodge, I. will, of Salem Mass. Sept. 14, 1670. Was he some ancestor of Mr. David Hull, nearly 200 yr. later??

FRANCES NEVADA CLARKSON EDMINISTER died in Excelsior Springs Oct. 21, 1920. - BURIED IN KINGSTON CEMETERY, KINGSTON, MO. ~~HAMILTON CEMETERY, HAMILTON, MO.~~

DWIGHT DAVID[9] DODGE.

Dwight was born near Mirable, Mo. Dec. 26, 1846. He died near Hamilton, Mo. Jan. 23, 1916. HIS PARENTS MOVED TO THE FARM SOUTH OF HAMILTON WHEN HE WAS 6 WEEKS OF AGE.

He married Lucy Frances Cox Jan. 27, 1874, who was born Oct. 22, 1854, and who died May 10, 1887.

Lucy Frances Cox joined the M. E. Church, South, when about 16 years of age and "lived a devoted christian life".

Dwight was a successful farmer, a christian man, a liberal contributor to churches and to any worthy cause. He noted for his generosity, his hospitality, and for fair-mindness, honesty and square dealing.

Shortly before his death, he purchased a home in Hamilton, disposed of most of his stock at a sale, rented his farm, but passed away before moving to town.

His estate was divided evenly, according to the terms in his will, between his three children by his first wife and his second wife and her son. His will was probated in the county court at Kingston, Mo.

DWIGHT, being young, was not A CIVIL WAR VETERAN, but he was A MEMBER OF THE HOME MILITIA, AND WAS ACTUALLY ENGAGED IN A SKIRMISH AGAINST THE REBELS NEAR LEXINGTON, MO. UNDER CAPTAIN JACOB SNIDER. PROOF THAT HE WAS A BRAVE MAN IS OFFERED BY THE FACT THAT THE CAPTAIN HAD TO TELL HIM IN NO UNCERTAIN TERMS TO SHIELD HIS BODY by GETING BEHIND A TREE, RATHER THAN TO STAND BOLDLY OUT IN THE OPEN.

This according to Silas D. Dodge's[10] Copy:

Dwight David Dodge was baptized into the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of L.D.S. Aug. 20, 1906 by Elder W. P. Pickering. Church records show that Dwight was a liberal contributor toward the erection of Oak Dale Church.

Department of the Interior,
BUREAU OF PENSIONS,
Washington, D. C., June 31st, 1902

Madam;

The above-entitled claim for increase of pension is rejected on the ground that the soldier died without a medical examination made under the pending claim, and that there is, therefore, no date from which an increase of pension can be allowed under existing law.

Section 4698 1-2, Revised Statutes, provides that, "except in cases of permanent specific disabilities, no increase of pension shall be allowed to commence prior to the date of the examining surgeon's certificate establishing the same, made under the pending claim for increase."

Very respectfully,

Commissioner.

Ernest Henry's Grandson Is Dead

A story in the California, Mo., Democrat of May 25th, states that Pvt. Ernest Elliott, son of Mrms. James H. Elliott, who was reported missing in action in the Phillippine Islands on May 7, 1942, is presumed to be dead by the War Department and his parents have been so notified.

Mr. Elliott, the father, is a former teacher in the Hamilton high schools, and the mother is a daughter of Ernest Henry of Hamilton and is remembered as Miss Ethel Henry.

The letter from the War Department states that hope of the young man's safety had been held for two years and consideration has been given to all available information bearing on Ernest's absence, and since two years have now expired without receipt of any evidence to support a continued presumption of survival, the War Department must terminate such absence by a presumptive finding of death.

Pvt. Elliott was born Sept. 30, 1919, and was inducted into military service on August 1, 1941. He spent a week at Jefferson Barracks and volunteered for service in the Philippines. He was sent to Angel Island at San Francisco for a months' training and then sent overseas. He was a member of the 31st Infantry on Bataan.

Mrs. J. H. Elliott and Son Are Here from California

Mrs. James Elliott and son Billy of California, Mo., came Tuesday for a brief visit with the former's sister, Mrs. L. V. McCauley and other relatives. The Elliotts called on Mrms. Carl Stewart, Mrms. A. B. Goodrich and others during their stay. Mrs. Elliott is the former Ethel Henry, daughter of the late Mrms. E. E. Henry, and was reared in Hamilton. She and Mrs. Goodrich were high school classmates. Mr. Elliott was a science teacher in Hamilton high school in 1914.

Vacation for Fred McCauley

Mrms. Fred McCauley and children Gary and Sandra Sue of Kansas City, Kans., came Sunday and remained until today visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Charlotte McCauley, his brothers, Neil and Howard McCauley and families and the parents of Mrs. McCauley, Mrms. Porter Weaver at Kidder. Mr. McCauley has been employed by Montgomery Ward for four years.

Attend Funeral Service for Veteran at California, Mo.

Mrs. L. V. McCauley and Mrms. Carl Stewart drove to California, Moniteau county, Oct. 22nd to attend the funeral service of the former's nephew, Pvt. Ernest Elwood Elliott, son of Mrms. J. H. Elliott. The Hamilton people were guests of Mrms. Elliott until Sunday.

Pvt. Elliott was the first Moniteau County boy to lose his life in World War II and died while a prisoner of the Japanese. He was born Sept. 30, 1919, southeast of Latham. He assisted his father on the farm until he was inducted into military service on Aug 1, 1941. He began his training at Jefferson Barracks and a week later volunteered to go to the Philippines. He was sent to Angel Island at San Francisco, then overseas where he was a member of the 31st infantry on Bataan when war with the Japs broke out.

Mrms. Elliott received letters from the War Department following the surrender of the Philippines reporting their son missing in action as of May 8, 1942. On May 23, 1945, official notice of his death was received which actually occurred on May 24, 1942. By then the Philippines were back in the hands of the U. S. forces and records of deaths in Japanese prison camps became available.

His body was buried first at Camp O'Donnell where he died and later moved to a cemetery near Manila. His younger brother, Bob, while serving in the Philippines visited his grave at both places.

Surviving the young man are his parents and three brothers, William, Robert and Eugene; two sisters, Frances and Mrs. Floyd Strange, and other relatives. He was a grandson of the late Ernest Henry of Hamilton.

The Hull Family

from Congressional Library - Washington, D. C.

"The Hull Family in America" - 3282 14-1765 CS71.H912

by Col. Weygart - 1913.

America has 3 main divisions:

1. Geo. Hull and his descendants; his brother,
2. the Rev. Joseph Hull and his descendants; and
3. Richard Hull, and his descendants.

Geo. and Joseph were sons of Thomas and Joane Peson Hull, of Somersetshire, Eng., the earliest known ancestors of the line. Geo. was about 5 years older than Joseph, and came to this country (America) 5 years earlier, in 1630. The relationship of Richard Hull to them, if any, is not known. He was a native of Hertfordshire, Eng., and although 4 years younger than Joseph Hull, came to Ams. ~~[illegible]~~ earlier ~~than~~ than Joseph, but the exact date is not known.

There is also a bunch of W.H. Hulls, so called, whose relationship to any of the 3 branches has not been discovered. What could be learned about them by the efforts of Mr. William G. Hull, of Plymouth, N. H., has been included in the present volume.
